

<h2 style="color: #800040;">Wingspan</h2>
Duration:	60	min
Number of players:	1-5	players (The Asia-expansion has a special game for 2 players and for a flock: 6-7 players)
Materials/ Tools needed:	Board, components, cards
Publisher:	Original: Stonemaier Games
Game Designer:	Elizabeth Hargrave
Language	Eng, Dutch (available in several languages)
Links:	https://boardgamegeek.com/boardgame/266192/wingspan
Type of game:
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> board <input type="checkbox"/> card <input type="checkbox"/> role play <input type="checkbox"/> simulation <input type="checkbox"/> computer <input type="checkbox"/> Serious <input type="checkbox"/> Other:
Main topic:
play birds from different continents and score the most points
Short description/ Goal of the game:
Wingspan is a family / strategy board game in which you put birds in different habitats. Each bird needs food to be placed and depending on the place on the board, it also needs some investment of eggs. The educative part of the game is that each birdcards contains information about that specific bird. Wingspan has started with birds from North America and is extended with birds from Europe (1) Oceania (2) and Asia (3)
Image:

Educational value/ Learning Objectives:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• ornithology / knowledge of birds, their habits, behavior and the habitats they live in.• strategy

Recommendations for use:
Pro's & Contra's:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• (+) The game is cleverly made: characteristics of birds are also reflected in the actions you may do as a player.• (-) This game takes at least one hour to play.

Tips and Tricks for Facilitators
How to adapt game for different groups, topics, occasions/needs
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Only use the 'bird-cards' to discuss or make pares.• Use the cards and add different assignments

